January 10, 2010

Dear Japanese educators in San Diego,

We are pleased to announce that the Thirteenth Annual San Diego Region Japanese Speech Contest for high school and college/university students will take place on March 21st, 2010. This contest will provide the opportunity for young students of Japanese to make presentations in the hope of improving their language skills, making friends, and expanding understanding between American and Japanese cultures and people. It is vital that we reach as many students as possible to take part in this contest. We will be very grateful for your cooperation in our efforts by encouraging your students to enter the contest.

Last but not least, we appreciate Mrs. Hisako Coox of former Japan-US Center for her continuous and generous support to make this wonderful opportunity to happen and get together once a year over the last fifteen years.

Thank you everyone for your warm support and encouragement. We look forward to seeing you all again in March!

Sincerely,

Fumiko Tachibana
